

Rahasyam

Description:

Greetings to the IIT Mandi Community!

We trust this correspondence reaches you and your family in good health.

With the auspicious occasion of Janmashtami, marking the birth of the physical form of the Supreme Lord Krishna on the 7th of September, we are all set to celebrate it with great splendor and charm! Stalls and exhibitions will be set up, centrally themed around the Life and Leela of Lord Krishna. The evening will be marked with colorful musical and dance performances too!

Let us all celebrate Janmashtami this year with love and devotion and participate in “Rahasyam - The Janmashtami Treasure Hunt Competition”.

Rules and Regulations

- This competition will be similar to a CTF competition - to move to the next question you will have to solve the current question, as they might be interconnected.
- The team leader shall create a team on the link provided and should send a joining invite to other teammates to let them join the team for the challenge.
- All the questions will be based on Bhagavad Gita As It Is and Krishna Janmashtami.
- You are free to do googling or take help from books but you are not allowed to take help from family members, friends, and other participants.
- Questions will be tricky, so you really need to do brainstorming to figure out the correct answer. We have provided a few sample questions.
- Questions will be in English and Hindi as shown below.
- Let's have a demo. This was the pattern of last year's competition:
